

Family News

You have a vital role in what God is doing among Muslims; especially in the MedRim.

During Ramadan, which begins April 2 this year, Muslims commit 30 days to fasting and spending time in spiritual reflection and heightened worship. We want to pray that the true God will reveal himself to Muslims so they can respond to the freedom and peace he offers through his son, Jesus Christ.

Will you join Christians from all over the world and pray for Muslims during Ramadan?

To join the prayer, register at <https://www.mrnet.org/prayer> and you will receive a daily prayer prompt for the 30 days of Ramadan starting April 2, 2022.

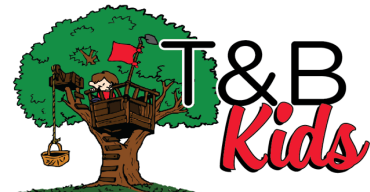

The Mission Committee would like to thank you for honoring your financial and prayerful commitments to spreading the Good News of Jesus through local and foreign missions!

The Sonshine House needs boxes of cereal at this time. They are always in need of girls and boys new underwear, all sizes.
