Be sure to pick up a March Newsletter from the Rollins this morning. It is very encouraging! Jason Rollin's birthday is April 22 so take time to drop a card in the mail to him. It costs $1.30 in postage, or you can bring it by the office.

The Wednesday Morning Ladies class is asking for your donations of aluminum soda cans. They process these cans and use the proceeds to fund the service projects they do throughout the year. There is a donation bin for cans in the hall by the Sunshine House bin.

The Sunshine House is in great need of volunteers to help process clothing on Tuesdays. Please contact Gene Stevens or Debbie Baber for details.

Kid Zone Team #1 is serving this morning. Team members include: Ami Preston, Natalie Smits, Abigale Smits, Lucas Aaron, PJ Navarro, Alex Preston, Michelle McBride, Jana Fristoe and Greg Stanford will be leading.

Easter Sunday and the Flowering of the Cross

Next Sunday, our congregation will have the opportunity to participate in the Flowering of the Cross. This visual experience will remind us of the life and beauty of the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This will be a unique way to celebrate the death and resurrection of our Lord. The time begins with a barren cross, "an emblem of suffering and shame" as the old hymn proclaims. But as each person decorates the cross with fresh, living flowers and greenery, it is transformed and what was a symbol of death becomes a symbol of resurrection and life. And again from the old hymn, something that holds "a wondrous attraction for me." This time will clearly illustrate and highlight the transition from death, darkness, pain and hopelessness to life, light, joy and hope.

Please bring individual fresh flowers and greenery. You can pick wild flowers, gather flowers from your own yard, or purchase them. (We will also have extra available for visitors) At the appropriate time the congregation will be asked to come forward as they are ready and place their flowers on the cross. The cross will be wrapped in a material that will hold the flowers. Some can come on stage and decorate the upper parts of the cross while others can stay on the floor and decorate the lower parts of the cross.

This is something the whole family will participate in. There will be no Pre-School Station or Kid Zone next Sunday. All children will be in the worship gathering and will participate with their family in the flowering of the cross.

Please invite your friends and family to join you that morning and share these details with them so they will be ready to participate. For those of you who haven't made it back to our worship gathering yet, this will be a meaningful time to come back.

All who participated in this living illustration last year will attest to what a moving experience it was. We look forward again this year to have the joy of proclaiming, "He is alive!"

Ken
