Coming on Sunday mornings this summer:
Faith in Real Life Conversations

This summer on Sunday mornings during our second hour, we will break from Faith Communities, and all adults will meet together. We will have live interviews with different people in our church family to share their stories about what faith in Jesus looks like lived out in our different contexts. Possible topics include: Faith in the Workplace, Faith during Grief, Faith in Marriage, Faith as a College Student, and more. Hope you can join us!

Coming on Wednesday Nights this summer:

Beginning Wednesday, June 1 there will be two adult classes being offered at 7:00.

The Men's Class will work through a Tony Evans series called "Kingdom Men" facilitated by John Honig and the men's ministry team.

The Women's class will work through a Lisa Terkeurst series called "Twelve Women of the Bible" facilitated by Amanda Ellard.
